

Sailing Ballad - Vintage Piano Sheet Music

The image shows two pages of vintage piano sheet music. The top page is for the song "WHAT KIND OF FOOL AM I?" by Bricusse/Newley (1961), numbered 61. It features a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment with chord symbols. The lyrics are: "What kind of fool am I? Who nev-er fell in love... If seems that I'm the on-ly one that I have been think-ing of... What kind of man is this? An emp-ty shell... a lone-ly cell in which an emp-ty heart must dwell... What kind of lips are these? I that lied with ev-'ry kiss... that whis-pered emp-ty words of clown am I? What do I know of life? Why can't I cast a-way the love that left me a-lone like this... why can't I fall in love? like oth-er mask of play and live my life? Why can't I fall in love, till I don't peo-ple can... and may-be then I'll know what kind of fool I am... give a damn...". The bottom page is for "RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET" by Williams (1935). The lyrics are: "Red sails in the sun-set, way out on the sea, oh car-ry my loved one He sailed at the dawn-ing, all day I've been blue, red sails in the sun-set, home safe-ly to me, Swift wings you must bor-row make straight for the shore, I'm trust-ing in you. we mar-ry to - mor - row and he goes sail - ing no more." Both pages include musical notation, lyrics, and chord symbols.
